April 2026

The Easter Promise

We gather now as faithful friends,
To celebrate where death just ends,
And life eternal just begins,
Through Him who cleansed away our sins.

The cross stands empty on the hill,
Its purpose now complete, until
We meet our Savior face to face,
Embraced forever by His grace.

The Easter promise holds us tight,
That darkness yields to morning light.
And through His sacrifice divine,
His life becomes forever thine.

You are not alone

A quote from, Don't sing songs to a Heavy Heart, written by Kenneth C. Haugk

"The Bible speaks:

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and staff, they comfort me (Psalm23:4)

Just as the shepherd is with his sheep, God is with his people. His presence comforts. It means that wherever we are, in whatever situation, we are not alone...

Aloneness is never so sharp as when someone is suffering. While God's presence can be a powerful antidote to loneliness, suffering people may have a difficult time believing God is with them. One gift you can offer them is to be present in their pain. The physical presence of another human being can bring significant comfort to those who are suffering."

So, if you are holding back from visiting someone who is in hospital or dying, because you don't know what to say, remember that you don't have to say anything, your physical presence will make a world of difference to ease the suffering of the ailing person.

Bless you as you go forward to visit,

Sharon Babcock, Stephen Leader
